Art Therapy

Explore, express and find creative inspiration

FRIDAY, NOV 6, 2026

12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. Central Time

Join others impacted by cancer for a one-hour guided virtual art therapy session with Ariela Robinson, Ed.D., Art Director, Teacher, and cancer survivor. Whether you've experienced cancer yourself or supported a loved one through their journey, you're welcome to participate. This session is open to all, regardless of where you received treatment or whether you're currently in treatment or years beyond it. Connect with others, explore your creativity, and express yourself through art in a welcoming, supportive environment. All you need is paper and colored pencils!
